

Jasmine Bloom

N Sharmila Rani

The sight of Jasmine bloom
Makes me nostalgic
Its resplendent aestheticism
Shuns my sleep and keeps me awake

When twilight spreads around the earth
Amidst lush green leaves, the puffy blossoms
Unfold delicate petals with soft warmth
Filling air with the fragrance

Its beauty enhances on a moonlit light
Golden yellow light shimmering on the white flowers
No artist can paint such wonderful sight
Except the Creator of the universe

Breeze loaded with fragrance
Throbs virgin's heart taking her into fantasy
Bride adorn their tresses with Jasmines
To be attractive and look elegantly

Devotees make garlands to worship the deity
Harlots to seduce the fanatics
Shrink use them for in aromatherapy
Bards praise the purity in their poetics

Blooming on summer evenings
Using the hot climate rightly suitable
Conveys mankind deeper meanings;
Hard situations can be turned favourable

Though you may be insignificant in this world
Let your action speak of your prominence
As the exotic fragrance felt distance ahead
Before a glimpse of the Jasmine blooms

N Sharmila Rani is the Head of the Department of English, Sardar Patel College, Secunderabad, Telangana - 500 025. She can be contacted at nannepagar@gmail.com