T. S. Chandra Mouli

Solar smile, Diana's delight, shimmering stars. spectacular glances cheer every spirit selflessly, embodying pleasure of sharing!
Roots, fruits, spreading shades,
twittering birds on branches,
fluttering dancers around blossoms.
affection, amiable associations amplified!

Spring, summer, monsoon and winter different seasons to enjoy diversity;
fragrance varied, hues myriad,
bouquet of flowers cheers any soul!

Sources afar, hill streams meander combining to make a symphony; Nadeenaam Sagarogathi .
Friendship reflects divine grace!
