

Mosque

J. Sithi Raihana

Mosque is a place where we perform prayer,
There, in front of God, you are a mayor.
You preach piety and patience,
creating uniformity and wonderful relations.
In that arena of extreme silence,
there is no room for ultra-violence.
Maintain discipline and harmony
To get the best rewards at the awarding ceremony.
Enter the mosque, fresh and clean,
And with pure hearts, which is half of the deen.
Beg with your Almighty, to help improve your modesty,
And to live a life with dignity and honesty.
Recite the Holy Quran, the book of love,
which tells the story of small ants and big cows.
With the Almighty, have strong faith and belief,
Then you experience here and in the hereafter,
A world full of joy and relief.

J. Sithi Raihana is a final year student of B. Com. at Thassim Beevi Abdul Kader College for Women, Kilakarai, Ramanathapuram District, Tamilnadu.